- Open discussion
- Community updates

Sheriff King provided an update on west end Deputy employment and training status. He noted that all current Deputies are lifelong west end residents. Community members and Sheriff King held conversation regarding community concerns.

Eddie Reetz, Clallam Bay Correction Center provided an update for Correction Center. He noted that the vacancy rate is a little high at this. The center population normally runs around 900, but the center is currently running at 700.

Community members held discussions regarding the high school, housing, employment, zoning codes, and early learning center.

Don Crawford Parks, Fair and Facilities provide an update on County Parks. Community members held discussions.

North Olympic Library System provided an update on library services.

Commissioner French updated that the non-profit West End Youth and Community Club applied for Clallam County Lodging Tax funds to hire a full-time tourism director to help market the Sekiu Community Center. He noted that the Prosecuting Attorney's Office deemed the application ineligible because the Sekiu Community Center was not a tourism facility. Discussion was held on who is currently running the visitor center. Discussion was held on next steps.
